JACKSON HEIGHTS has become one of the most distinctive apartment residential sections of New York City.

It is where a carefully planned and artistically created New York City apartment section has been established and where more than one thousand families now enjoy their apartment homes with every kind of outdoor sport and recreation, right at their door.

The New Elevator Garden Apartments at Jackson Heights of from 5 to 7 rooms and 2 to 4 baths are ready for immediate occupancy. Larger suites may be arranged. They are offered on the Jackson Heights Tenant-Ownership Plan on liberal terms. Social and business references are required.

The various Garden Apartment groups embody every facility and accessory for easy, convenient housekeeping. Each individual Garden Apartment has a pleasing outlook over a parked street and a shrub dotted Garden Court.

Jackson Heights is but 22 minutes from the heart of Manhattan by subway from Grand Central subway station via Queensboro subway on the Corona line to 25th Street (Jackson Heights) station. Or, Jackson Heights may be reached by motor from 59th Street via Queensboro Bridge, Jackson Avenue to 25th Street.

It will pay every family who is looking for the right place to live in New York City, to go to Jackson Heights today.

The Jackson Heights office of the Queensboro Corporation is near the 25th Street subway station, while their Manhattan office is at 50 E. 42nd Street. Complete details of the apartments may be obtained at either office.
